EDITOR'S NOTE: The Promethean's Athletes of the Issue selects from the Yellowjacket Athletics Players of the Week chosen before are issue date. The Promethean staff then narrows it down to one men's and women's athlete through a staff vote.

J'Vaun Walker: Selected as UWS's athlete of the week on November 14 as he helped the Yellowjackets to a 3-0 start. Averaged 28 points through the first three games. Walker opened the season with 26 points against Macalster while adding six steals on the defensive end. Next was the Merrill Thompson Classic where they opened up against UW-Lacrosse and Walker led four players with double-digit points with his 20. The men stayed undefeated in the Thompson Classic after Walker's best game, against UW-River Falls he put up a complete stat line of 38 points, 6 rebounds, 4 steals, and one assist.

Quinn Clark: The Yellowjacket womens soccer team made it to the National Tournament and event though they lost, goalkeeper Quinn Clark stood out and was selected on Nov. 14 as well. During the first round of the NCAA tournament Clark had 18 saves out of the 19 shots on target. The Yellowjackets would lose to UW-La Crosse 1-0.
