

Look Back at 2023-2024 School Year

Dr. Ephraim Nikoi spoke to the crowd about Black Experiences while spectators enjoyed the soul that was brought by the Black Student Union.
Photo by Carter Lansdale

UWS Women's Hockey Team breaking huddle after a Timeout.
Photo By Isaiah Wiita

"Folks, I'm here today to talk about something that doesn't get enough attention. The progress made to invest in America, and the American workers, and the American product. Investing in America that's what we're doing," Biden said at Earth Rider Brewery.
Photo by Isaiah Wiita

UWS Student-Athletes Receiving Check from Cenovus Staff.
Photo By Promethean Staff

The beat of the drums by the Red Cliff Band kept Sami Keller on beat while dancing.
Photo by Rene Williams

The computer lab in Swenson has been undergoing renovations since the Fall 2023 semester. This renovated space will be another space for students to relax inbetween classes.
Photo by Drew Kerner

Live Well's Pop-Up Domes
Photo courtesy of Kennedy Fester

Back (Left to Right): Dean Nick Danz, Mitchell Hammer, Seth Gudmundsen, Lucy Landwehr, Emily Dahler. Front (Left to Right): Dillion Krisik, Sami Keller, Assistant Professor Dr. Megan Anderson, UWS Chancellor Renee Wachter, Superior Mayor Jim Paine, Co-operative Educational Program Coordinator Angela Radzak, Wis. Gov. Tony Evers, Becca Rainey, Adalia Ortiz, Alaina Lind.
Photo by Drew Kerner

"Ride the Cyclone" stars (from left to right) Holland Venhuizen as Constance, Sara Vindel as Ocean, Tanner Lee as Mischa, Sydney Adkins as Jane Doe, Xavier Walt as Ricky, and Emmett Appleby as Noel.
Photo by Daniel Young

Women's Basketball team aking the court against North Central.
Photo By Isaiah Wiita

"Melrose" by Hamilton; mixed media
Photo by Drew Kerner